Translation:

Oh! That's beautiful

Baby has been good. He deserves his pictures.

Today, globalism, or the conquest of the universe and beyond (by a single god)

Translation:

I see. I understand. I know. I say

Judaism explained in 3 drawings by Michel Dakar

The unique man: transhumanism is the continuation of Judaism in another form

Translation:

There are too many people on earth.

There are too many Palestinians in Palestine.

There are too many animals, plants, everything.

There is too much life.

I like empty bottles.

No – Yes

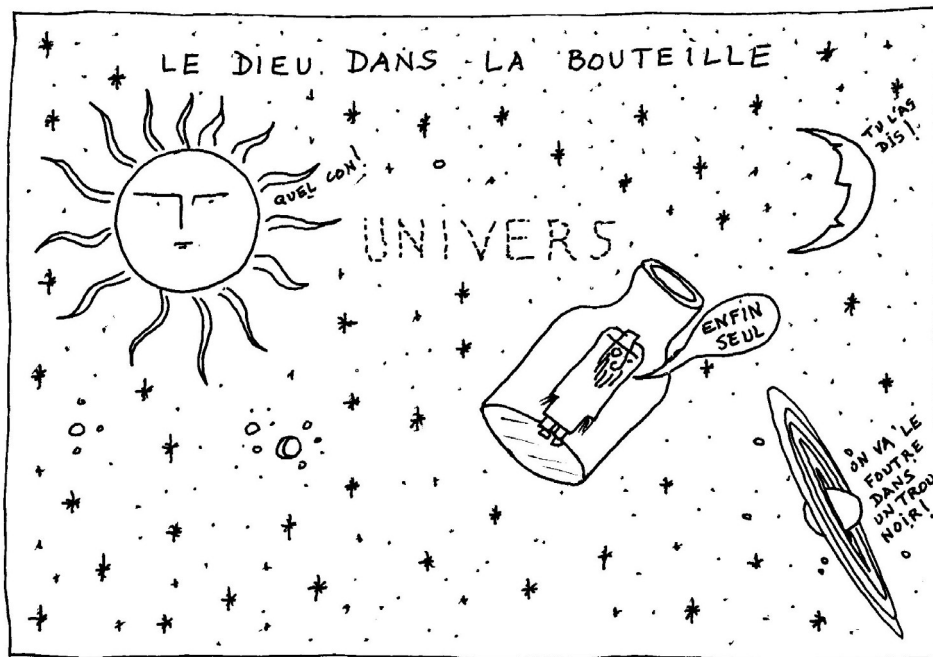

Translation:

I want to be alone in the bottle

For eternity

I will finally be god

Translation:

The god in the bottle

Universe

You said it!

We're going to throw him into a black hole!
